DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 6 and 7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. It is not clear if the claim 6 depends from claim 1 or if the claim is independent. If Applicant intends for claim 6 to depend from claim 1 it is not proper for a method claim to depend from an apparatus claim. If Applicant intends for claim 6 to be independent the claims will be restricted. Group I a golf ball and Group II a method.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1, 2, 4, and 5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Sullivan et al (6,186,906). Regarding claims 1 and 2, Sullivan discloses a golf ball comprising a core, a mantle, and a cover, wherein each layer may include a plurality of voids (fig 5). Sullivan discloses the voids may be filled with air (col. 8, lines 25-29).

Art Unit: 3711

Regarding claim 4, figure 5 shows at least 0.5% of the volume are voids. Regarding claim 5, the intermediate layer has a thickness of 0.0525 inch (1.33 mm) (see table 3, sample 1).

Allowable Subject Matter

Claim 3 is objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
